

Together

My Memo

Alone,

I cannot do it,

Be it.

Not a friend,

A parent,

A child,

Or nurse.

I fall often,

And cannot get up.

Despite my attempts,

I cannot grip my balance,

Be strong with myself,

Courageous or efficient,

Keeping shoulders straight.

And I am not a wimp.

I can do a lot.

I can accomplish.

Greatness is me.

Persistence is my nature.

I do not give up easily.

I can keep going for long,

But not alone.

When you hold my hand,

A tight grasp on my fingers,

My goals are in arms reach.

I can climb the mountains,

Together.
